Dr. Wolfgang Köstler named CFO of Compart

February 11, 2015

[Böblingen, February 11, 2015] – Dr. Wolfgang Köstler named CFO of Compart

Effective February 1, 2015, Dr. Wolfgang A. Köstler was appointed Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of Compart AG. The board confirmed the appointment in its regular meeting at the beginning of February. Dr. Köstler brings with him a wealth of knowledge and many years of experience in finance, controlling, and personnel. Before applying his skills as CFO for Heiler Software AG, he was Director of Mergers & Acquisitions of Deutsche Bahn AG and a member of various national and international boards of directors.

“With its innovative technologies, Compart is a market leader and trendsetter in document processing,” says Dr. Köstler. “I am greatly looking forward to working with the entire team to further consolidate the company's success and expand its role as a market leader.” Harald Grumser, founder, owner and CEO of Compart AG: “We are proud to strengthen our management team with the addition of such an experienced professional, especially one who understands the software business.”
